Appointment in Bonum Bank Plc’s management

The Board of Directors of Bonum Bank Plc has appointed the company’s Chief Development Officer Lassi Vepsäläinen as Deputy CEO. He will assume the position on 1 December 2026. The appointment will not affect the composition of Bonum Bank Plc’s Management Team.

Lassi Vepsäläinen has worked for the company and its predecessor organisation since 2009 and was involved in establishing Bonum Bank Plc in 2013. He has previously been responsible for the company’s finance, HR and administrative functions. As Chief Development Officer, he is responsible for payment services and centralised financial crime prevention.

“Lassi Vepsäläinen has extensive experience of Bonum Bank and its key functions. His versatile expertise provides him with a strong foundation for serving as Deputy CEO. The Board wishes him every success in his new role,” says Jaakko Pulli, Chair of the Board of Directors of Bonum Bank Plc.
