

StaffPoint Group strengthens its board – Marja-Leena Tuomola and Rolf Jansson join as new members

StaffPoint Group announces the appointment of two new members to its board of directors: Marja-Leena Tuomola (LL.M, eMBA) and Rolf Jansson (M.Sc. (Tech.), M.Sc. (Econ.)), who will support the company's continued growth.

The other members of the StaffPoint board are Juha Tukiainen, chairman of the board, and Meri Koivula from MB Funds.

Marja-Leena Tuomola has extensive and diverse experience in developing digital business. A seasoned expert in service industries, she has held demanding, result-oriented roles for over 30 years across private healthcare, media, and marketplace businesses.

Rolf Jansson brings strong expertise, especially in business growth leadership and enhancing competitiveness. He currently serves as the CEO of Aspo, a multi-sector company.

The chairman of the board Juha Tukiainen from MB Funds expressed his satisfaction with the new board composition:

“StaffPoint is a digital frontrunner in its field. The addition of Marja-Leena Tuomola and Rolf Jansson to the board reflects the company's ambition and commitment to strengthening that position even further. Both bring strategic commercial insight that enhances the board's ability to empower leadership and accelerate the company's growth journey.”

The board of StaffPoint Group 2025:

Juha Tukiainen, chairman of the board
Rolf Jansson
Meri Koivula
Marja-Leena Tuomola

Additional information:

Anu Ahokas
CEO, StaffPoint Group
anu.ahokas@staffpoint.fi