Review by CEO Peter Ramsay

The second quarter of the year was strong for Taaleri, and we promoted our strategy focusing on renewable energy, real estate and bioindustry despite the challenges in the market environment. Our operating profit was EUR 17.8 million, corresponding to a profit margin of 67%.

Both the private asset management business and Garantia's guaranty insurance operations developed well during the second quarter, and the Group's continuing earnings increased by 11%. The Group's income grew to EUR 26.3 million, including EUR 15.0 million of net income from investment operations.

The continuing earnings from the Private Asset Management segment grew by 16.7% to EUR 5.6 million and operating profit grew to EUR 9.0 million. The segment recorded EUR 8.3 million in capital gains from the sale of the renewable energy project development portfolio, and a total of EUR 3.5 million in performance fees realized from the sale of the real estate business's Taaleri Forest Fund III, of which a previously unrecognised proportion of EUR 1.5 million was recognised as income for the period.

The renewable energy business held its technical first closing for its sixth fund, Taaleri SolarWind III, at the end of the second quarter, and the actual first closing after the review period at the beginning of July with EUR 286 million in commitments. In connection with the closing, the fund acquired a project development portfolio developed by Taaleri Energia, which included 50 projects. With a significant number of investors in active due diligence, we expect that there will be continued strong demand in future closings. Our goal is to raise EUR 700 million from investors for the Taaleri SolarWind III fund.

During the second quarter, the real estate business focused on the active development of new investment products and the preparations to exit funds at the end of their lifecycle. The sale of Taaleri Forest Fund III and its forest estate portfolio was successfully executed during the review period.

The bioindustry business continued to map potential investees for the Taaleri Bioindustry I Fund and to prepare a venture capital fund. In addition to these, at the turn of the review period, Taaleri made a total of EUR 3.7 million in investments in WasteWise Group, a Finnish company. The technology developed by the company enables the recycling of difficult-to-recycle plastics, and the pyrolysis oil resulting from the process can be used to replace crude oil, for example, in the raw material chain of plastic production. This fits perfectly with Taaleri's goals of creating value through sustainable development. One of the aims of the investment is to also accelerate the growth of Taaleri's bioindustry business, and the company will be reported as part of the bioindustry business.

In the Strategic Investments segment, Garantia's result was strong. Garantia's insurance service result was EUR 3.5 million and the combined ratio was once again excellent at 27.1%. Garantia's net income from investment operations increased to EUR 1.7 million as the investment market strengthened from the corresponding period.

In the Other group's non-strategic investments, a positive change of EUR 3.3 million in fair value was recognised from Turun Toriparkki Oy in connection with the company's refinancing. Taaleri participated in the company's EUR 16-million capitalisation with EUR 2.3 million.

One of our strategic priorities is to expand the sales and distribution of our private equity funds. In addition to our significant domestic cooperation with Aktia, we have strengthened our own international and institutional sales. We already had our own sales organisation in the renewable energy business, which has focused on large domestic institutions as well as international investors. We have also entered into or are in the process of negotiating distribution partnerships for our funds in Europe, North America and Asia. In addition, last year and this year, we have met with a number of European institutional investors and family offices focusing on impact investing, to whom we have presented Taaleri's operations and the SolarWind III fund.

Outlook and financial targets

Taaleri does not publish a short-term outlook. However, the company has set itself targets related to growth, profitability and return on invested capital.

Taaleri's long-term targets include:

- Continuing earnings growth at least 15 percent
- Operating profit at least 25 percent of income
- Return on equity at least 15 percent.

The company's goal is to distribute to its shareholders at least 50 percent of the profit for the financial year as well as the capital that the company does not need for growth investments or to fulfil its targets for solvency.

Operating environment and market prospects

Developments in the global economy and of the capital markets are still marked by uncertainty, although the outlook has improved. Inflation has slowed, but the central banks have continued to tighten monetary policy to contain underlying inflation. Economic growth is expected to be slower than average in the coming years, and the risk of a recession in the eurozone has increased. In the United States, the stock market has risen due to strong technology shares, but in Europe and especially in the Nordic countries, the development has been significantly weaker.

The operating environment of the capital market has become more challenging due to, for example, rising interest rates and strong inflation. The growth of alternative investments has slowed, but the asset class has become a significant part of the portfolios of institutional investors, as it offers the opportunity to diversify risks and smooth out returns. At the same time, the EU's Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation is guiding both investors and financial actors towards sustainable investments. In particular, more private capital will be needed in the future to achieve the global emission reduction, energy self-sufficiency and circular economy targets.

Europe's desire to break away from Russian energy sources and to increase its self-sufficiency strengthens the operating environment for renewable energy and bioindustry, in particular.

Europe's desire to break away from Russian energy sources and to increase its self-sufficiency strengthens the operating environment for renewable energy and bioindustry, in particular.

In the renewable energy business, the operating environment remained good, although the war in Ukraine, higher interest rates and inflation have all increased the costs of project development and project construction. The war in Ukraine has contributed to the acceleration of the green transition, but it has also created uncertainty among investors. The price of electricity has fallen significantly from the peak level of last year, but it is still higher than in previous years. The increased volatility of electricity prices contributed to increased uncertainty in regulation and taxation.

The real estate market is challenging, and transaction volumes have remained clearly lower than in previous years due to rising interest rates, although a slight increase in activity was seen towards the end of the review period. The rise in interest rates caused the yield requirements to rise, and thus the values to fall, especially in the real estate segments and properties of the lowest yield claims. In the review period, the rise in interest rates was moderate, so negative changes in value were also moderate. In the rental market, occupancy rates remained good and, due to index-linked rents, both housing and commercial premises rentals generally saw a slight increase.

The long-term fundamentals supporting real estate investments, such as urbanisation, are still seen as strong in the Finnish real estate market. Sustainability and impact will be at the core of investment activities, and capital will increasingly seek out key locations and sustainable development investment targets in the future.

In bioindustry, both investor interest and the activity of potential investments remained at a high level during the review period. The poor availability and/or high price of some raw materials, tightened financing conditions and general economic uncertainty affect the timetables and costs of both bioindustry business's potential portfolio companies and of short-term projects of investees. The outlook for the long-term operating environment of the business remains stable.

In the European operating environment of Taaleri's associated company Fintoil's biorefinery in Hamina, the market situation remains tight. The market situation of pulp mills affects the availability of crude tall oil, and the reduction of distribution obligations in several countries poses challenges to the demand for end products.

The operating environment of Garantia Insurance Company Ltd's insurance operations was sluggish in the early part of the year. Inflation, rising interest rates and economic uncertainty kept consumer confidence low. The volumes of housing transactions and mortgage loans raised decreased significantly from previous years, which affected the sales of mortgage guarantees. However, the creditworthiness of the company's consumer and corporate customers remained good, and no material changes occurred in the risk position of the guaranty insurance portfolio. In the early part of the year, investment market developments fluctuated. Although stock prices rose in some places, the continued rise in the central banks' interest rates put a strain on returns on fixed-income investments.

Insurance operations

Garantia's insurance revenue increased by 10.0% compared to the corresponding period last year and amounted to EUR 9.8 (8.9) million. Guaranty insurance exposure contracted by 0.3% during the first half of the year and amounted to EUR 1,856 (1,862) million at the end of the review period. The contraction of the guaranty insurance portfolio was attributable to lower underwriting volumes in the first half of the year.

Of the total guaranty insurance exposure, EUR 1,345 (1,343) million, or 72% (72), was made up of consumer exposure and EUR 511 (519) million, or 28% (28), of corporate exposure. The corporate exposure includes corporate loan guaranties, commercial bonds, and other business-related guarantees underwritten to corporates and other organisations.

The development of the investment market was varied in the reporting period. In the United States and Japan equity markets saw strong gains, whereas in Europe equity prices developed without clear direction. In the fixed-income market rate hikes by central banks extended beyond investor expectations, putting pressure on the return of fixed-income investments. In general, the investment market has remained sensitive to monetary policy decisions of central banks in a weakening economic environment.

Risk position

The principal risks associated with Garantia's operations are the credit risks arising from guaranty insurance operations, and the market risks incurred in investment operations.

The risk position of Garantia's guaranty insurance operations has remained stable. Total guaranty insurance exposure contracted slightly compared to the end of the previous year, and the shares of consumer and corporate exposures remained at the level seen at the end of the previous year.

Consumer exposures amounted to EUR 1,345 (1,343) million at the end of June and represented 72% (72) of the total guaranty insurance exposure. The consumer exposures are made up of residential mortgage guaranties and rent guarantees underwritten to private households. The residential mortgage guaranty is a supplementary collateral underwritten to cover a housing loan. The rent guarantee protects landlords against tenants defaulting on their lease contract obligations.

Most of the consumer exposure is made up of the residential mortgage guaranty portfolio, the risk position of which did not see any material changes during the half of the year. The portfolio is well diversified with respect to counterparty, geographical location of collateral property and underwriting year, and the creditworthiness of the counterparties in the portfolio is very good on average. The credit risks of the portfolio are in addition limited by means of an excess-of-loss portfolio reinsurance arrangement. Increased interest rates and inflation have put a strain on the debt service capacity of borrowers, and housing prices have come down during the first half of the year, resulting in lower residential collateral values. However, this has not materially increased claims, thanks to the good underlying creditworthiness of the borrowers.

Corporate exposure amounted to EUR 511 (519) million at the end of the review period and represented 28% (28) of the total guaranty insurance exposure. The corporate exposure is made up of corporate loan guarantees, commercial bonds, and other business-related guarantees. The guaranteed companies in the corporate portfolio mainly include medium and large Finnish companies and other organisations. The credit risks in the portfolio are, in addition to risk selection, managed by applying reinsurance, collaterals and risk-mitigating contractual arrangements.

The share of corporate exposures with investment grade ratings of AAA...BBB- amounted to 22.3% (23.0), and the share of exposures rated BB- or better made up 72.8% (67.0) of all rated corporate exposures. The share of exposures with weak ratings of C+ or lower came down to 0.9% (2.2). The creditworthiness of the corporate counterparties in the company's guaranty insurance portfolio has remained good on average, although the weakened economic environment has had an impact on the creditworthiness of individual counterparties.

The principal industry sectors in the corporate portfolio were manufacturing at 24.2% (23.8), construction at 16.0% (17.2), retail and wholesale trade at 15.2% (15.6), and financial and insurance services at 13.0% (13.1). The shares of other industry sectors were all less than 10%.

In investment operations, the overall risk level was kept unhanged during the first half of the year. At the end of the review period, fixed-income investments made up 88.1% (88.2), equity & private equity investments 10.4% (10.4) and real estate investments 1.5% (1.4) of the investment portfolio (incl. cash, bank balances and accrued interest). The majority of the fixed income investments was made up of investments in bonds of Nordic companies, credit institutions and insurance companies with strong creditworthiness. The fixed-income investments also include bond funds that invest in government debt securities. The proportion of investment grade-rated fixed-income investments was 69.6% (71.4). The modified duration of the fixed-income investments was 2.1 (2.3).

Credit rating

Sustainability

Focuses in 2023

- Planning and implementing the climate roadmap and preparing NZAM reporting
- Sustainable partnerships: better understanding of sustainability impacts in the value chain, due diligence and audits
- Sustainability data and reporting: regulatory compliance and preparation for regulatory developments, ensuring data availability and accuracy
- Promoting the wellbeing of personnel and expanding and developing related measurement

Progress Q2/2023

- Publication of notices on the principal adverse sustainability impacts of alternative fund managers and funds (EU SFDR)
- Continuing to implement the Partner Code of Conduct and training for funds' investees
- Developing a system to support the collection, management and reporting of sustainability data with a partner
- Launching a project to promote personnel diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI)

In the second quarter of the year, we emphasised the collection and reporting of data describing the adverse sustainability impacts of our operations in our sustainability work, partly on a voluntary basis, while fulfilling the obligations of EU regulation. We published the announcements of our alternative investment fund managers (Taaleri Private Equity Funds Ltd and Taaleri Energia Funds Management Ltd) about the principal adverse impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors on Taaleri's website. In addition, we published the remaining disclosures for funds classified under Articles 9 and 8 of the EU's Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (SFDR) in the fund-specific sections of our website. We use the collected data to monitor and manage the impacts and risks of our operations and to utilise business opportunities.

We selected partners for a personnel survey and for a mapping of diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI), to be conducted for the first time on this scale at the end of the year. With the help of the survey and mapping, we can develop and improve employee engagement, wellbeing at work, managerial experience, competence development, cooperation and community spirit. A deeper examination of DEI aspects also supports the broader development of the industry, as it enables us to, for example, more strongly promote similar initiatives and themes in our investments.

We developed the monitoring of our commitment to the Partner Code of Conduct within the Group and revised our sustainability risk assessments from the perspective of several businesses. We also developed sustainability communication by updating the sustainability section on Taaleri's website and prepared for the UNPRI/NZAM reporting on sustainable investing and the progress of the climate target.

The new shares and/or option rights or other special rights entitling to shares may be issued and the shares possessed by the company may be assigned either against payment or without payment. #### Share price development

The chart represents the price development of Taaleri's share since listing from April 20, 2013, to June 30, 2023:

Capital adequacy

The Taaleri Group forms an insurance company group according to Chapter 26 of the Insurance Companies Act and is supervised by the Finnish Financial Supervisory Authority. According to the FSA's decision, as the parent company of an insurance company group, Taaleri Plc fulfills the definition of a multi-sector holding company according to Chapter 26, section 1, subsection 1, point 10 of the Insurance Companies Act.

Garantia Insurance Company Ltd is an insurance company operating under the supervision of the Finnish Financial Supervisory Authority. Taaleri Plc's operations are regulated especially by the requirements of a listed company, and Garantia is mainly responsible for meeting the requirements set by the Insurance Companies Act in the Taaleri Group.

Taaleri Private Equity Funds Ltd and Taaleri Energia Funds Management Ltd are licensed as alternative fund managers by the Financial Supervisory Authority. Alternative fund managers are subject to their own capital adequacy requirements.

Solvency according to the Insurance Companies Act (Solvency II)

Garantia's solvency strengthened clearly during the first half of the year, thanks to an increase in basic own funds and a reduced solvency capital requirement. At the end of June, the company's basic own funds amounted to EUR 113.7 (105.3) million, and the solvency capital requirement amounted to EUR 43.8 (45.5) million. The solvency ratio, or the ratio of basic own funds to the solvency capital requirement, was 259.8% (231.3).

Basic own funds grew mainly due to profits accumulated in the review period. The solvency capital requirement decreased due to lesser solvency capital requirements for market risks of investment assets.

Solvency II capital adequacy regulations do not fall within the sphere of statutory audit, and hence the Solvency II figures have not been audited.

Short term risks and concerns

The Russian invasion of Ukraine in late February 2022 increased uncertainty in the operating environment. Since Taaleri has no business operations or investments in Russia or Ukraine, the changed geopolitical situation does not have a direct impact on our business. However, the war may increase the country risk in Finland and cause uncertainty among investors, but Finland's Nato membership has brought stability to the situation. Interest rates have risen, risk premiums have increased, and inflation is strong. Central banks have continued to tighten monetary policy, which has increased the likelihood of a recession in the euro area. In addition, inflation and the increased price levels of raw materials can be seen in the costs of project development and funds' investees.

The result of Private Asset Management segment is influenced by the development of assets under management, which depends among other things on the progress of private equity fund projects, the development of capital markets, the success of the own fundraising and the success of the cooperation with Aktia. Profit development is also influenced by the realisation of performance fees and the success of own investment projects.

Garantia's guaranty insurance business and investment activities have a major impact on Taaleri's operational income and capital adequacy. Garantia's risk position is described in more detail on page 12.

The Other group's income consist of the market value changes in investments and of sales profits/losses gained as well as returns of loans granted. The earnings and results of the Other group may thus vary significantly between periods under review.

Taaleri's risks and risk management are described in more detail in Note 37 on pages 96–107 of the 2022 Financial Statements, which is attached to the 2022 Annual Report.

The Taaleri SolarWind III Fund, Taaleri Energia's sixth renewable energy fund, held a technical first close at the end of the review period. On 7 July 2023, Taaleri announced the actual first closing, with approximately EUR 286 million in commitments.

Accounting policies of the Half-Year Financial Report

Taaleri's consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adopted by the EU. This Half-Year Financial Report has been prepared in accordance with IAS 34. The Half-Year Financial Report is unaudited. The Half-Year Financial Report has been published in Finnish and English. The Finnish Half-Year Financial Report is official and is used if there is a discrepancy between the language versions. All figures in the Half-Year Financial Report have been rounded and consequently the sum of individual figures can deviate from the presented sum figure.

The accounting policies of the Half-Year Financial Report are substantially the same as those presented in Taaleri's Financial Statements for 2022, except for the amendments to IFRS standards that came into force on 1 January 2023 or later. The significant accounting policies for preparing Taaleri's consolidated financial statements regarding the IFRS 17 standard, which entered into force on January 1, 2023, are described below. Other revised standards and interpretations do not have a material impact on the reported result or financial position.

IFRS 17 Insurance Contracts

Insurance contracts

The company measures its primary insurance contracts and its ceded reinsurance contracts according to IFRS 17 Insurance Contracts. The company applies the standard in financial periods beginning on and after 1 January, 2023. The transition date of the company was 1 January, 2022.

A contract is considered to be an insurance contract if a transfer of significant insurance risk is accepted from the insured in a way that the insurer is liable for reimbursing the beneficiary in case an insurance event specified in the contract adversely affects the beneficiary.

The company's insurance contracts, where the company acts as the insurer, are in their entirety made up of guaranty insurance contracts, and the ceded reinsurance contracts, where the company acts in the role of the insured, are entirely made up of reinsurance contracts taken up to reinsure risks arising from the guaranty insurance contracts. The company's insurance contracts do not include service components, investment components or embedded derivatives, that should be separated from the insurance component.

For the purposes of measuring insurance contracts, the company divides its insurance contracts into four (4) insurance contract portfolios, and furthermore, into insurance contract groups. The division into insurance contract portfolios is done on the basis of similarities in risk characteristics and the way the contracts are managed. The division into insurance contract groups is done on the basis of the timing of initial recognition, whether the contracts are onerous or not, and on the basis of possible reinsurance cover related to the contract. The number of the company's insurance contract groups is approximately 70. Insurance contracts are recognised and measured on an insurance contract group basis.

Insurance groups are recognised on the start date of the first insurance contract of the group or on the due date of the insurance premium collected from the insured in the case the due date is before the start date of the contract. Onerous insurance contract groups are recognised when the groups become onerous.

The company applies the Building Block Approach (BBA), as specified in IFRS 17 Insurance Contracts, in the measurement of all its insurance contracts.

Measurement of insurance contracts on initial recognition

In connection with initial recognition, the company measures an insurance contract group to be the sum of the capital value of the fulfilment cashflows required to satisfy the contract, a risk adjustment for non-financial risk, and the contractual service margin.

The capital value of the fulfilment cashflows includes the present value of expected future cash flows arising from premiums, claims, claims recourse collections, administrative expenses, and acquisition costs of the insurance contracts.

The fulfilment cashflows are discounted into their present value by applying an interest rate curve, that includes a risk-free rate, reflecting the time value of money, and an adjustment for financial risk that reflects the illiquidity of the cashflows of the insurance contracts (the liquidity premium). The applied risk-free interest rate is the German government bond yield curve. The liquidity premium has been estimated based on observed market risk premia on instruments with similar risk characteristics compared with the company's guaranty insurance portfolio.

The risk adjustment for non-financial risk reflects the implicit cost of capital that the company incurs, when in it exposes itself to the uncertainty related to future claims. The cost of capital is calculated by estimating the amount of unexpected claims arising from the insurance contracts in each future period, resulting in an estimate on the amount of capital required to cover these claims. The monetary cost of the capital required is then calculated by applying a specific 6.0% annual cost of capital rate on the future capital requirements. The adjustment for non-financial risk is then achieved by discounting the hypothetical future cost of capital payments to their present value, applying the discount rate discussed above.

The capital requirement for the contracts is calculated on contract level primarily by applying the Internal Ratings Approach set by the Basel II capital adequacy regulations. A confidence level of 99.5% is applied, matching the level set forth in the Solvency II rules governing the capital requirements for insurance companies. Due to the confidence level applied, the capital requirement for the contracts reflects the amount of claims, in excess of expected claims, that is exceeded once every 200 years.

The contractual service margin represents the unearned profit of insurance contract groups, that will be recognised in future reporting periods, proportionate to insurance services delivered in these periods.

Subsequent measurement of insurance contracts and recognition principles

The carrying value of an insurance contract group is made up of the liability for remaining coverage and the liability for incurred claims.

The liability for remaining coverage includes the capital value of the fulfilment cash flows required to satisfy the contract, an adjustment for non-financial risk., and the contractual service margin (i.e., unearned profit).

The liability for incurred clams includes the capital value of future claims payments from claims that have already been incurred, and a risk adjustment reflecting the uncertainty of these cash flows. The future claims also include the estimated effects of claims recourse recoveries.

The company recognises insurance revenue on the basis of expiration of the liability for remaining coverage to the extent that the expiration is attributable to insurance services delivered in the reporting period. Hence, the recognised revenue equals the monetary value of the compensation the company considers it has earned by delivering insurance services in that period.

An insurance contract that has been underwritten by the company in the role of the insurer ends and will be derecognised off the balance sheet, when the insurance contract ceases to exist, the company is no more subjected to risk from the contract, and when the company can no longer be required to forgo economic resources to satisfy the contract.

Onerous contracts

An insurance contract group is onerous on initial recognition, if the capital value of fulfilment cashflows required to fulfil the contract, the risk adjustment for non-financial risk, and the cashflows arising from the acquisition costs of the insurance contract result in net cash outflow.

Insurance contract groups classified as onerous will result in a loss recognised in the income statement on the basis of the negative net cash flow of the group. In this case, the carrying value of the insurance contract liability of the onerous insurance contract group equals the capital value of the fulfilment cashflows required to satisfy the contract, and the contractual service margin of the group will be nil.

An insurance contract group will become subsequently onerous, if the adverse changes in the fulfilment cashflows of the group, in consequence of any changes in estimates of cashflows concerning future service exceed the carrying value of the contractual service margin of the group

Reinsurance contracts

The company divides its' ceded reinsurance contracts into insurance contract portfolios and groups in the same manner as in contracts related to primary insurance. In addition, the measurement accounts for counterparty default risk of the reinsurers.

At initial recognition of ceded reinsurance contracts, the company recognises a contractual service margin that can arise from a net profit or a net loss attributable to the ceded reinsurance contract.

Net profit is generated if the present value of cash inflows of the ceded reinsurance contract is greater than the value of its cash outflows. Net loss is generated if the present value of the cash outflows is greater than the value of cash inflows.

If the contractual service margin of the ceded reinsurance contracts is made up of net profit, the contractual service margin is recognised as a liability. If the contractual service margin is made out of a net loss, it is recognised as an asset.

Transition approaches applied

The company has applied the Full Retrospective Approach in the transition of most insurance contracts recognised in 2020-2021, and the Modified Retrospective Approach for most of the insurance contracts recognised in 2019 and earlier. The Modified Retrospective Approach has also been applied on a small number of contracts recognised in 2020-2021. The company has also applied the Fair Value Approach (FVA) on a small number of contracts recognised in 2019 and earlier.

Contracts measured according to the Full Retrospective Approach have been valued as if IFRS 17 Insurance Contracts would have been applied always. If the information needed for the application of the Full Retrospective Approach has not been available, the contracts have been measured following the Modified Retrospective Approach by using reasonable and justifiable information. In other cases, the contracts have been measured according to the Fair Value Approach.

Of the total insurance revenue generated in the financial year 2022, 51% was generated from contracts measured using the Full Retrospective Approach, 49% was generated from contracts measured using the Modified Retrospective Approach, an 0% from contracts using the Fair Value Approach.

Accounting policies requiring management's judgment and key uncertainties regarding estimations

The measurement of Garantia's insurance contract liability according to IFRS 17 Insurance Contracts includes several factors that involve judgement and uncertainty. The most significant uncertainties are related to the estimation of future claims cashflows, and to the estimation of the amount of the adjustment for non-financial risk reflecting the variation in the claims cashflows. Also, the selection of the interest rate curve applied in cashflow discounting, and the measurement of the liquidity premium include uncertainties.

The value of Garantia's insurance contract liability differs significantly between IFRS and national GAAP accounting. The valuation difference gives rise to a deferred tax liability, that has been recognised on the group balance sheet. Most of the valuation difference is attributable to the equalisation provision, a part of the technical provisions as measured by the national GAAP rules. The measurement of the equalisation provision is based on calculation principles approved by the Financial Supervisory Authority, claims statistics approved by the management, and estimated future claims development. When calculating the equalisation provision, judgement is exercised in comparing the claims ratio for the period against expected long term average, that forms the basis for the accumulation or reversal of the equalisation provision. Hence, the accumulation and reversal of the equalisation provision have direct effect on the value of the deferred tax liability arising from the valuation difference of insurance contract liabilities.

<sup>30</sup> At initial recognition the Group's non-strategic investments are specifically classified as measured at fair value through profit or loss. Thus, dividend yields are recognised in profit or loss, but changes in fair value, foreign exchange rate gains and losses as well as sales gains and losses are recognised in other comprehensive income. These are not later recycled to profit or loss. The classification as a non-strategic investment is made instrument-by-instrument by management. Non-strategic investments include small investments in limited partnerships associated to Taaleri's private equity funds and equity investments in private companies not directly associated to Taaleri's business strategy. On 30 June 2023 the fair value of non-strategic investments was EUR 5.9 (31 Dec 2022 EUR 6.3) million, of which none paid dividends in 2023 or 2022. No material non-strategic investments were derecognised in 2023.

Fair value hierarchy

Total

Level 1: Fair values are based on the prices quoted on the active market on identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Fair values are based on information other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (from prices) or indirectly (derived from prices). When measuring the fair value of these instruments, Taaleri Group uses generally accepted valuation models whose information is based to a significant degree on verifiable market information.

15,564

Level 3: Fair values are based on information concerning an asset or liability, which is not based on verifiable market information. Level 3 assets are mainly valued at a price received from an external party or, if no reliable fair value is available/determinable, at purchase price.

Assets classified at level 3

Assets categorised within level 3 consist of unquoted shares in private equity funds, other stocks, and share units. Shares in private equity funds are mainly measured at the latest fair value received from the management company. Unquoted stocks are valued either at the latest trading price used on the unregulated market, at the book value of the entity subject to the investment, using the cash flow-based return value method, or if it is estimated that the fair value cannot be determined with sufficient accuracy, at the acquisition cost.
