PRESIDENT AND CEO SARI TULANDER:

Year 2023 was a time for renewal for Reka Industrial. The corporate sale of Reka Cables Ltd to Nexans Group was completed at the end of April and during the year Reka Industrial's Board and management concentrated on strategy work, which was launched as a result of the change. Reka Industrial's sole industrial segment to continue is Reka Rubber, which is one of the leading manufacturers of industrial rubber products in Northern Europe. Rubber segment invested in improving productivity and supporting future growth during the year.

The sale of shares of Reka Cables Ltd, agreement signed in November 2022 with Nexans Group, was completed at the end of April 2023. As a result of the corporate sale, a EUR 31.0 million sales profit was recorded in other operating income. After the corporate sale, Reka Industrial paid off its Green Bond and bank loans in Finland.

With the corporate sale, active investment work began by mapping and finding suitable investment products. During the ongoing strategy process, Reka Industrial's funds are mainly invested in low-risk investments and short-term deposits. On 31 December 2023 Group's cash and cash equivalents were in total EUR 38.5 million.

In 2023, Rubber segment's turnover remained stable and was EUR 30.6 million (30.6). EBITDA was EUR 1.2 million (2.6). Several key recruitments were made in the Rubber segment during the year, especially in sales, product development and procurement to support future growth. Profitability was affected by the increase in labor, material, component and service costs and the delay in transferring the cost increases to customer prices.

In order to support growth and productivity of the Polish production unit, the Rubber segment initiated a transfer of mold product manufacturing made with injection technology from Poland to Finland at the end of 2022. The transfer was completed in the spring 2023 and the Polish production unit concentrates on the manufacturing of black hoses and silicone hoses. To increase the capacity of manufacturing black hoses the Rubber segment ordered a new extrusion line to the production unit in Poland. The price of the new line is EUR 1.3 million and the line is expected to be in production use by the end of July 2024. In addition to the extrusion line investment there are plans for smaller investments and efficiency measures both in Finland and Poland to support growth and productivity.

In 2023, Rubber segment invested in growth and clarifying the roles of factories created good conditions for the development of productivity and capacity growth. Investments and recruiting will continue also during the current year. However, the general economic situation and uncertainty are reflected in the order volumes and shortened order lead times on the Rubber segment's customers.

The Rubber segment has a strong position in its selected market segments and the delivery capability of its factories is good.

The company's strategy process is ongoing.

NEAR-TERM OUTLOOK

The company's strategy process continues. During the strategy process company's funds are mainly invested in low-risk investments and short-term deposits. In 2024, Rubber segment emphasizes increasing productivity and investing in future growth.

The sustainability work is also supported by an ISO 14001 certified environmental management system and ISO 9001 certified quality management system. Reka Rubber has the required environmental permits.

Climate and environment

At the end of 2019 Reka Industrial started transformation to increase energy efficiency and reduce CO2 emissions in the Cable segment. Financing was implemented with a Green Bond and the measures targeted Reka Cables. As a result of the project Reka Cables became first carbon neutral cable producer (scope 1 and 2) as of 1 November 2021 and by the end of 2022 Reka Cables' energy efficiency had improved 7.3 percent since the comparison year 2017.

For Reka Rubber, climate actions means reducing emissions and improving energy efficiency in the company's own operations. Reka Rubber has calculated the carbon footprint of its own operations, which it strives to reduce by consuming emission-free electricity and improving energy efficiency of its own operations. At the same time, the aim is to influence factors affecting air quality.

Climate and environment related issues require investments and development efforts to reduce own carbon footprint as well as to meet the growing demands of customers.

Reka Rubber's factories use CO<sub>2</sub>-free electricity and solar panels have been installed at the factory in Aura. The solar panels produce approximately 90.000 kilowatt hours energy in one year. At the Polish factory, the lightning has been replaced by LED lights. The last installations of LED lights at the Aura factory will be completed in 2024.

Reka Rubber is unable to influence to the CO<sub>2</sub> percentage of the gas used at the factory in Poland, but the oil used in steam production at the Aura factory will be replaced. Survey of alternatives is underway. In addition, actions to improve energy efficiency have been made and several different projects are ongoing.

Rubber segment strives to reduce the amount of rubber waste in proportion to production tonnes through material selection, process development and technical supports.

The company also wants to develop the competence of its personnel and encourages and commits them to excellent performance. Also business partners are required to have the same values and actions.

MACROECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT

Part of the Group's financing is tied to a reference interest rate and part to a fixed interest rate. The rise in reference interest rates increased the total interest costs both for the financing of trade receivables and for traditional loans. Reference rates are actively monitored and updated in the Group's forecasts and plans.

Inflation was reflected in higher costs for labour, materials, components and services. The increase in the costs and the high level of inflation in Poland accelerated some production arrangements and efficiency measures. Changes and efficiency measures are also being carried out at the factories in Finland. There is still a delay in transferring the costs into customer prices.

ACCOUNTING POLICIES FOR INTERIM REPORT

The general accounting policies are described in this section. Detailed accounting policies and descriptions of decisions based on management's judgement and management's use of estimates are presented later for each item of the financial statements. Accounting policies are marked with light green.

Principles or preparation

Adherence to IFRS standards

These interim financial data have been prepared in accordance with the IAS 34 Interim Reports standard and the IAS standards as well as SIC and IFRIC interpretations effective on 31 December 2023. International financial standards refer to standards and the related interpretations that are laid down in the Finnish Accounting Act and regulations based on the Finnish Accounting Act and that have been approved in accordance with the EU Regulation (EC) No 1606/2002. The group has not applied any new or amended standard or interpretation before its effective date.

Financial Statement release and Interim reports are unaudited.

NEW AND AMENDED STANDARDS APPLIED IN THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2023

IFRS 17 Insurance Contracts, including Amendments Initial Application of IFRS 17 and IFRS 9 – Comparative Information

The new standard for insurance contracts will help investors and others better understand insurers' risk exposure, profitability and financial position. This standard replaces IFRS 4 standard.

The amendments to IFRS 17 alleviate mismatches in comparative information arising from the different transition requirements of IFRS 9 and IFRS 17. The amendments also allow the comparative information about financial assets to be presented in a manner that is more consistent with the requirements in IFRS 9 Financial Instruments. This standard has no effect on company's reporting.

Disclosure of Accounting Policies – Amendments to IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements and IFRS Practice Statement 2 Making Materiality Judgements

The amendments clarify the application of materiality to disclosure of accounting policies.

Definition of Accounting Estimates – Amendments to IAS 8 Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors

The amendments clarify how companies should distinguish changes in accounting policies from changes in accounting estimates, with a primary focus on the definition of and clarifications on accounting estimates.

Deferred Tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a Single Transaction – Amendments to IAS 12 Income Taxes

The amendments narrow the initial recognition exemption (IRE) and clarify that the exemption does not apply to transactions such as leases and decommissioning obligations which give rise to equal and offsetting temporary differences.

International Tax Reform — Pillar Two Model Rules – Amendments to IAS 12 Income Taxes

The amendments give relief from accounting for deferred taxes arising from the OECD's (Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development) international tax reform and require new disclosures to compensate for the potential loss of information resulting from the relief. Reka Industrial Group falls below the value limits and therefore this change has no effect on Group's reporting.

SUSTAINABILITY

Since 2016, Reka Rubber has been part of the chemical industry's Responsible Care programme, through which the company is committed to sustainability in its industry. The aim of the Responsible Care programme is to develop activities and achieve excellent level in environmental, safety and health issues by working together with different groups and investing in transparent and open interaction.

Reka Rubber assesses its level of sustainability through the EcoVadis system. EcoVadis is an independent and international sustainability assessment system, in which a company's labour practices, ethics, environmental responsibility and sustainable supply chain are being reviewed. In 2022, Reka Rubber achieved bronze level rating.

The sustainability work is also supported by an ISO 14001 certified environmental management system and ISO 9001 certified quality management system. Reka Rubber has the required environmental permits.

Climate and environment

At the end of 2019 Reka Industrial started a transformation to increase energy efficiency and reduce CO2 emissions in Cable segment. Financing was implemented with a Green Bond and the measures targeted Reka Cables. As a result of the project Reka Cables became first carbon neutral cable producer (scope 1 and 2) as of 1 November 2021 and by the end of 2022 Reka Cables' energy efficiency had improved 7.3 percent since the comparison year 2017.

For Reka Rubber, climate actions means reducing emissions and improving energy efficiency in the company's own operations. Reka Rubber has calculated the carbon footprint of its own operations, which it strives to reduce by consuming emission-free electricity and improving energy efficiency of its own operations. At the same time, the aim is to influence factors affecting air quality.

Climate and environment related issues require investments and development efforts to reduce own carbon footprint as well as to meet the growing demands of customers.

Reka Rubber's factories use CO2 -free electricity and solar panels have been installed at the factory in Aura. The solar panels produce approximately 90.000 kilowatt hours energy in one year. At the Polish factory, lightning has been replaced by LED lights. The last installations of LED lights at the Aura factory will be completed in 2024.

Reka Rubber is unable to influence to the CO2 percentage of the gas used at the factory in Poland, but the oil used in steam production at the Aura factory will be replaced. Survey of alternatives is underway. In addition, actions to improve energy efficiency have been made and several different projects are ongoing.

Rubber segment strives to reduce the amount of rubber waste in proportion to production tonnes through material selection, process development and technical supports.

Social responsibility

For Reka Industrial, sustainability means not only climate and environmental perspective, but also responsibility for the company's personnel. The company takes care of its personnel's working conditions, employees' rights and respect for human rights. Reka Industrial wants to be a safe and efficient work environment, where personnel's social, physical and mental wellbeing is taken into account. The company also wants to develop the competence of its personnel and encourages and commits them to excellent performance. Also business partners are required to have the same values and actions.

MACROECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT

Part of the Group's financing is tied to a reference interest rate and part to a fixed interest rate. The rise in reference interest rates increased the total interest costs both for the financing of trade receivables and for traditional loans. Reference rates are actively monitored and updated in the Group's forecasts and plans.

Inflation was reflected in higher costs for labour, materials, components and services. The increase in the costs and the high level of inflation in Poland accelerated some production arrangements and efficiency measures. Changes and efficiency measures are also being carried out at the factories in Finland. There is still a delay in transferring the costs into customer prices.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of the financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the valuation of the reported assets and liabilities and other information, such as contingent assets and liabilities and the recognition of income and expenses in profit or loss. Although these estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results may differ from the estimates. Management estimates are marked with light blue.

The most important items, which require management estimates and assumptions, and which may include uncertainty, are impairment testing of goodwill, customer relationship appreciation, deferred tax assets of unused tax losses and interest expenses, discount rate and definition of length in lease periods in IFRS 16 handling, processing of pensions and related contracts, effects on provisions given, handling of rental loss provision and net realisable value of inventories. Detailed descriptions of decisions based on management's judgement and management's use of estimates are presented later at each item of the financial statements.

The Group's management makes judgements concerning the adoption and application of the accounting policies for the financial statements. The management has used its judgement in selecting and applying the accounting policies, for example, classification of leases and processing of pension agreements.

Valuation principles

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared based on original cost, except for the following items, which have been recognized at fair value: derivative contracts, cash and cash equivalents and other financial assets.

All changes in open customer-specific hedges are booked to equity. Other changes in the value of derivatives are recognized through the income statement. Derivatives that hedge net sales are included in net sales. Changes in metal derivatives hedging customer orders and changes in raw-material purchase hedging for periods less than 12 months are included in material purchases. Longer-term raw-material purchase hedging is included in financial income and/or expenses. Customer-specific commodity derivatives and segment-specific currency hedging have been recognized under each segment. Other derivatives are recognized in other operations and eliminations.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and bank accounts, deposits and other short-term investments. Cash and cash equivalents are recognized in cash flow statement as cash and cash equivalents. Cash and bank accounts and deposits maturing less than 3 months are recognized in cash and cash equivalents in the balance sheet. Bank deposits maturing in more than 3 months, other deposits maturing in less than 12 months and short-term investments are recognized in other cash equivalents in the balance sheet.

OPERATING RESULT AND EBITDA

IAS 1 standard Presentation of Financial Statements does not define operating result. The Group has defined operating result as follows: the net amount formed by deducting from the net sales the purchase costs adjusted by the change in the stocks of non-finished and finished goods as well as expenses for production for personal use. Deductions from the net sales also include expenses arising from employee benefits without IAS 19 defined benefit pension arrangements related items, depreciation, amortization and any impairment losses. Other operating incomes and expenses are also taken into account. Other items than those stated above are presented below operating result. Exchange rate differences and changes in fair value of derivatives are included in operating result, if they arise from business-related items. Otherwise they are recognized in financial items. Operating profit is also referred to as operating profit or operating loss, depending on the situation.

IAS 1 standard does not define EBITDA. The Group has defined EBITDA as follows: EBITDA is the net amount that is formed when depreciation and any impairment losses are added to the operating profit.

ACQUISITIONS AND DISVESTMENTS OF BUSINESSES

Reka Industrial sold the shares of Reka Cables Ltd to Nexans Group on 26 April 2023. Impacts of the sale are described in more detail in the note Discontinued operations. There were no other material divestments or acquisitions during the financial year.

DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

On November 10, 2022, Reka Industrial signed agreement with Nexans Group regarding the sale of all outstanding shares of Reka Cables Ltd. With the signing of the agreement, Reka Industrial's Cable segment ended and Reka Cables Ltd and its subsidiaries were classified as discontinued operations. The purchase price for the shares was EUR 53 million. The transaction was conditional to the approval of the Extraordinary General Meeting and approvals of authorities. The Extraordinary General meeting approved the transaction on 15 December 2022. The authorities approved the transaction in April 2023.

Locked box interest was paid for the purchase price until 31 March 2023. The Corporate sale was completed on 26 April 2023. Therefore the financial result and cash flows of discontinued operations are reported in Reka Industrial's financial figures for the period of four months, 1 January – 30 April 2023.

Assets and liabilities related to discontinued operations are presented separately on their own lines in the balance sheet as assets classified as held for sale until sale. The result of discontinued operations is reported separately from the income and expenses of continuing operations in the consolidated income statement. Differentiation in the income statement has been implemented in its own columns. Intragroup income and expenses between continuing and discontinued operations have been eliminated.
