Kempower Corporation, Stock Exchange Release, 25 May 2026, at 8.30am EEST

Sami Teininen appointed Chief Information Officer and member of Kempower Global Leadership Team

Kempower has appointed Sami Teininen as Chief Information Officer (CIO) and member of Kempower Global Leadership Team, effective August 2026. Sami Teininen brings to Kempower extensive experience in global IT leadership, digital transformation, and business technology development.

Sami Teininen joins Kempower from Fastems, where he has served as Chief Information Officer, responsible for global IT strategy, governance, cybersecurity, data and analytics, and digital transformation. Prior to Fastems, he held several senior IT leadership roles at Nokian Tyres, including responsibility for global IT operations, service management, and large-scale IT and process development programs, as well as IT leadership roles in North America.

“As Kempower scales globally, IT has become central to how we operate, serve customers, and compete. It is no longer a support function, but a strategic enabler and differentiator. Sami brings exactly the right profile for this moment - a strong track record leading global IT in international industrial environments, deep expertise in digital transformation and implementing AI tools, and a pragmatic, hands-on leadership style. I am very pleased to welcome him to our Global Leadership Team.” said Bhasker Kaushal, CEO of Kempower.
